

Tuesday, June 8th, 2010, 08:00-12:00 hrs

Grey Nuns Community Hospital,
Rm#B-0651

The Covenant Health Research Centre presents:

"Exploring Qualitative Research in Clinical Settings"

This workshop will explore qualitative research methods as a way to address clinical questions and issues, by establishing an understanding of the purpose and nature of qualitative research and some of the main research traditions and methods, such as ethnography, grounded theory and phenomenology. We will apply some of the main data collection and analysis principles using audio-visual data.

There is no charge for this workshop.

Continental breakfast will be provided.

To register contact Mary-Ann Clarkes at the Covenant Health Research Centre
735-2274 or email research@covenanthealth.ca

Judith Spiers, RN, PhD is an Associate Professor in the Faculty of Nursing, University of Alberta. She received her undergraduate education in New Zealand, her Master of Nursing from the UofA; and her PhD (Nursing) at the University of California, San Francisco. She completed a three year postdoctoral appointment at the International Institute for Qualitative Methodology (UofA) and is now an IIQM Affiliate Scholar.

NOVEMBER 2010