

Maternal Infant-Child Health and Environment Research Symposium:

“How Local Research can Influence Policy and Practice”

Thursday, February 26th, 2009, 08:00-17:00 hrs

Maple Leaf Room, Lister Hall, University of Alberta

Samuel S. Koranteng, MB, ChB

Dr. Koranteng is general practitioner who is currently working as surgical assistant at the Northern Lights Regional Health Centre, Fort McMurray. He obtained his MB ChB degree from the University of Ghana in 1996. Dr. Koranteng holds a diploma in Environmental Health and has collaborated with the Paediatric Environmental Health Specialty Unit in Edmonton in the study of the adverse effects of air pollution in children.